

NOTICE: PROPER DRESS IN LABORATORIES AT FARMINGDALE STATE COLLEGE

Farmingdale State College follows universal laboratory safety guidelines that prohibit certain attire in laboratories.

Environmental Health & Safety

[http://www.farmingdale.edu/administration/administration-finance/environmental-health-safety/
index.shtml](http://www.farmingdale.edu/administration/administration-finance/environmental-health-safety/index.shtml)

DON'T wear short sleeve shirts or tank tops

DO wear a lab coat. Lab coats protect your arms and clothing from contamination while working in the laboratory.

DON'T wear shorts, short skirts or short dresses.

DO wear long pants, skirts or dress that cover the legs down to the ankles.

DON'T wear sandals, open toed-shoe or any type of footwear that does not cover the entire foot.

DO wear closed toes shoes such as a durable sneaker or boot.

Feel free to leave a pair of shoes or long pants in your office/laboratory for use in the lab. If you want to wear short sleeve shirts to the lab, then put on a lab coat once inside. If you have questions, contact EHS at 420-2105 or ehs@farmingdale.edu.

