CELEBRATING GRADUATES FROM
SPRING 2020 ■ WINTER 2020 ■ SPRING 2021

The seal of Farmingdale State College is a circular emblem. The outer ring contains the text "UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK" at the top and "FARMINGDALE" at the bottom. Inside this ring, the year "1912" is prominently displayed. The center of the seal features a shield with various symbols, including an open book and a torch, representing the college's academic and historical roots.

FARMINGDALE STATE COLLEGE MISSION STATEMENT

Dedicated to student success, Farmingdale State College delivers exceptional academic and applied learning outcomes through scholarship, research, and student engagement for Long Island and beyond. FSC's commitment to student-centered learning and inclusiveness prepares graduates to be exemplary citizens equipped to excel in a competitive, diverse, and technologically dynamic society.

Farmingdale State College

State University of New York

December 19, 2021

The long wait is over. Congratulations!

Welcome to this unique alumni ceremony held especially for you. Today is a day to celebrate your academic achievements as well as your patience. Your resilience and sacrifices have not been forgotten.

No other group of students has waited so long for their much-deserved commencement ceremony and recognition. That makes today's event even more special. Honoring our pledge to recognize the Classes of Spring 2020, Winter 2020, and Spring 2021, marks this as a significant day in the College's history. Most importantly, it is a day that belongs to you, and to those friends and loved ones who supported you during your collegiate career. We welcome them in joining this celebration that is long overdue.

On behalf of Farmingdale State College's faculty and staff and the College Council, we wish you every success and happiness in the years ahead.

Sincerely,

John S. Nader, PhD
President

FARMINGDALE STATE COLLEGE

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

December 19, 2021

Dear Graduate of Farmingdale State College,

Congratulations on your graduation! You are officially a member of the Farmingdale State College Alumni Association. As you successfully navigated through one of the most challenging times in recent history, it is especially remarkable that we are able to now celebrate your accomplishments together. We wish you good fortune in your life and career. You are now part of the long and distinguished history of the College and join the ranks of over 100,000 alumni.

The Association is dedicated to supporting the mission of the College and promoting alumni pride through events and communication for our members. We are privileged to have you among our members and look forward to your future participation and support.

The Alumni Association is always available to you as a resource and we hope you will take advantage of all we offer. Be sure to stay connected by updating your contact information whenever necessary. You can easily do this by logging on to our alumni web site. We plan to keep you updated on all alumni happenings and hope that as you move on in your life, you will tell us about your successes.

We look forward to hearing from you over the years and remember, despite the challenges you may face after graduation, take comfort knowing you will persevere. You will always have a home at FSC and remain part of the Farmingdale family! #AlwaysARam

Sincerely,

William Jimenez '10

THE COMMENCEMENT TRADITION

A tradition that reaches back nearly a thousand years, commencement symbolizes not so much the culmination of the years of effort on the part of both students and teachers, but rather the beginning—the commencement—of a productive social and professional life, and a life of continued learning. The pageantry and symbolism of commencement are typified by the academic regalia of the participants in the ceremony. Academic regalia is a visible reminder that the process of intellectual pursuits has historic and honorable antecedents. The dignity of scholarship in the past remains vital in the present. Originally academic gowns were priestly robes. In part, they were worn for warmth and protection and their style and colors were rigidly prescribed by the church. Gowns were an adaptation of the priestly toga and were fur-lined. The hood was worn to protect the tonsured head of the priest.

In the early American universities, no gowns were worn. It was not until the late nineteenth century that this medieval tradition was revived to lend color to academic functions. At about the same time, an effort was made to establish a code so that academic regalia would be somewhat standard. All gowns of masters and doctors are generally ankle length and closed in front. The master's gown has pointed sleeves that are slit at the elbows. The doctor's gown has wide lapels of velvet, either black or the color of the scholar's specialization. The sleeves are full and bell-shaped; there are three velvet chevrons, either black or colored like the lapels. In the past, gowns have been black silk, but increasingly, gowns are the color of the school granting the degree.

The master's hood is pointed; the doctor's hood is bell shaped. The border of the hood indicates the scholar's department; the lining emblazons his or her school's colors. The shape and size of the American Hood marks the degree of the wearer. The lining of the hood is indicative of the institution granting the degree and is usually the official color or colors of the school. If two colors are used, one is generally arranged as a chevron upon the other. The velvet trim of the hood indicates the major field of knowledge.

Caps are traditionally black with a long tassel fastened to the mid-point. A doctor's cap may have a tassel of gold thread. The tassel is worn on the right side until the baccalaureate degree has been conferred; it is then worn on the left. Medieval universities were more concerned with rank and privilege; academic robes made visible the social and academic distinctions of the wearers. Certain colors and certain furs were restricted to nobles. In the leveling process that has characterized the American university, these distinctions have largely disappeared. Robes now indicate specialization with colors; arts and letters are white; economics is copper; fine arts is brown; humanities is crimson; law is purple; medicine is green; music is pink; education is light blue; philosophy is dark blue; physical education is sage green; science is golden yellow; theology is scarlet. Academic regalia, then, is a recollection of the continuum of intellectual pursuits and a reminder that the process in which we all are engaged has historic and honorable antecedents connecting us with dignity and traditions of the past which are alive and sacred in the present.

Traditionally, commencement begins and ends with the academic procession, led by the chief marshal carrying the mace, which traces its origins to the Roman fasces. The ceremony officially begins with the placing of the mace before the graduates and ends when the chief marshal retrieves it and leads the recession. The color guard follows the marshal, with the candidates for degrees marching behind in reverse order of seniority—bachelor's first, master's next and doctoral third. The faculty follows, also proceeding in reverse order, from assistant professor to full professor. The final division of the procession is the platform party composed of academic deans, administrative officers, trustees, honorary degree recipients, and the president. Several years ago, the order was reversed so that students enter commencement last. This was done to focus attention on our graduating students and to reflect the College's pride in their achievements.

Throughout their long and proud history, universities have retained and cherished strong ties to their ceremonial roots. Their faculties and graduates have gloried in the rich imagery and colorful panoply associated with commencement, one of the oldest continuing rituals in the Western world.

WE ARE HERE FOR YOU

Graduation is hardly the end of your Farmingdale State College connection. It's the kickoff to lifetime membership in a community of more than 100,000 alumni.

On campus or on the other side of the globe, in person or online, you can always connect with Farmingdale.

The dedicated staff and volunteers from the Alumni Association will help you get all the benefits of being a Farmingdale alum.

No need to sign up. You are already a member for life.

Plus, the Alumni Association offers unlimited opportunities to build your career connections and skills, find friends old and new, attend special events, take classes, and give back to the Farmingdale community. Farmingdale alumni even get special discounts at local restaurants, athletic events, the campus bookstore, and much more.
