The Student Code of Conduct has been adopted for the purpose of maintaining a quality of life that shares rights, privileges and responsibilities among its citizens, not for the purpose of duplicating public statutes and respect for the dignity and rights of students, staff, and groups in the campus community. - The student(s) can be reasonably considered a possible threat and/or clear danger to the safety of the College community.
- The academic integrity processes and/or functions of the College are violated.

Due process is guaranteed throughout the entire disciplinary process.

Interim suspension shall be imposed to insure the safety and well-being of members of the College community, College property, or to ensure the student's own physical or emotional safety and well-being. The imposition of the Interim Suspension does not preclude further disciplinary actions. Students who are on "interim suspension" status must report to University Police upon entering the campus and then proceed to the disciplinary hearing when scheduled or counseling when required.
 - A. All students must telephone or email the Dean of Students Office within three (3) business days of the effective date of Interim Suspension to be advised of the date and time of the disciplinary proceedings. Students who are in an Interim Suspension status are not required to receive a separate letter of violation charges. Students who email MUST use Farmingdale email addresses.

Disciplinary Procedures

1. A violator is charged with an alleged violation of the Student Code of Conduct. In other than Interim Suspension cases, The Dean of Students shall notify the student in writing of the charges within three (3) business days unless it is determined that more investigative time is necessary. Campus communication of charges of violation of Student Code of Conduct are delivered via U.S. Postal Service (certified and return receipt requested) and electronically via Farmingdale State College's email service. In the case of on-campus residents, written communications will be delivered to the student's residence hall mailbox (Students in an interim suspension status will be notified by both U.S. Postal Service to the home address currently on record in the College data base and campus residence). The charges shall note details such as: student's name and address, specific alleged violation of the Code, and the date, time and place of the alleged violation when appropriate. At this time a disciplinary hearing is scheduled by the Dean of Students. Failure to respond to notification of hearing will be considered as an admission of responsibility and appropriate sanction will be imposed. Refusal/failure to accept and/or sign for written/electronic communication regarding violations and/or charges DOES NOT preclude responsibility for the charges.

All disciplinary hearings will be conducted through a Judicial Hearing Process-Judicial Hearing Board or Administrative Hearing Procedure-at a time to be determined by the Dean of Students. The procedure by which a hearing will be conducted will be determined by the Dean of Students/designee.

2. The Dean of Students may continue to investigate the case as new or additional evidence is brought forth.
3. At the hearing, the student is called to discuss the charges with the Dean of Students/Judicial Hearing Board and present his/her account of the incident. The College reserves the right to search all individuals prior to entering the hearing.
4. The Dean of Students/Judicial Hearing Board and/or the student may call in persons who witnessed the incident to attend the hearing and discuss their account of the incident. The Dean of Students/Designee/Hearing Board must be notified of the presence of witnesses at least 24 hours in advance of the hearing. The admission of witness testimony or witness written statement is at the discretion of the Dean of Students and/or the members of the Judicial Hearing Board.
5. A student may appear with legal representation; however, this representative may serve only in an advisory capacity and may not address the Dean/Judicial Hearing Board. If legal representation is to be present, the Dean of Students must receive 24 hour written notice prior to the hearing. An original signed written letter notifying the retaining of legal counsel by the student must be presented prior to the conduct of the hearing. The Board/Dean of Students reserves the right to limit the number of representatives present at disciplinary proceedings.
6. A student may be accompanied by family members or friends; however, they may serve only in a supportive capacity and may not address the Dean/Judicial Hearing Board. If family members or friends are requesting to attend the hearing, the Dean of Students must receive 24 hour written notice from the student prior to the hearing. The admission of these members is at the discretion of the Dean of Students and/or the members of the Judicial Hearing Board. A student will be limited to a maximum of two support individuals upon approval of the Dean of Students and/or the members of the Judicial Hearing Board.
7. Failure on the part of the student(s) to appear at the hearing to discuss the charges is in itself a violation of the Student Code of Conduct and subject to disciplinary action.
8. If charges are without merit, the case against the student is dropped and the investigation shall promptly cease. The student will be found not responsible. In the event that additional information or evidence is made available to campus authorities, the campus reserves the right to reopen the case on the same or related charges.
9. If the Dean of Students/Judicial Hearing Board determines that there is a violation of the Student Code of Conduct, the student will be found responsible and sanctioned. Prior to final determination, in certain cases, the responding student and the reporting student will be provided with the opportunity to make a victim impact statement. This will be determined by the Dean of Students/designee.

10. The student will be notified in writing of the outcome of the hearing within an appropriate amount of time. Campus communication of charges of violation of Student Code of Conduct and determination letters are delivered via U.S. Postal Service (certified and return receipt requested) and electronically via Farmingdale State College's email service. In the case of on-campus residents, written communications will be delivered to the student's dorm mailbox (Students in an interim suspension status will be notified by both U.S. Postal Service to the home address currently on record in the College data base and campus residence). Refusal to accept and/or sign for written/electronic communication regarding the outcome of Judicial Hearings does not preclude responsibility for the outcome.
11. A student may appeal the Dean of Students/Judicial Hearing Board's sanction. All appeals must be filed within five (5) business days of receipt of notification of sanction to the Dean of Students. The student must write his/her appeal in compliance with the Guidelines for a Written Appeal available in Dean of Students'/Vice President's office, and online in the Student Handbook. The request for an appeal review does not assume a review will be granted.
12. The names of the specific members serving on a Judicial Board are to remain anonymous, with the exception of the Hearing Officer conducting the process.
13. A valid appeal will be reviewed by the Judicial Appeals Officer at an appeal review.
14. The recommendation of the Judicial Appeals Officer will be communicated to the Vice President for Student Affairs/designee who determines the College's final action.

Students who are suspended from the College for a period of time less than a semester MAY still have a permanent transcript notation on hers/his academic transcript depending upon the circumstances surrounding the violation, the egregious nature of the violation, or the need for the notation in the judgment of the President of the College or his/her Designee as the Chief Campus Judicial Officer. During short term suspension from the College, students ARE NOT eligible for financial refunds for any missed services during the times of absence nor are they eligible to participate in campus events or co-curricular programs.

Students who receive a transcript notation for disciplinary suspension from the College may appeal to have their notation expunged no sooner than one year after completion of suspension time/judicial sanction. Students who are expelled for disciplinary reasons will receive a permanent transcript notation.

In determining whether to remove the notation or not, the Vice President shall convene members of the Campus Judicial Appeals Board, the Dean of Students, and any others necessary to making a fair and appropriate decision. The recommendation of this group shall be made in writing to the President of the College or his/her Designee who will make the final decision.

Students who withdraw from the College prior to adjudication of a conduct case will have the following posted to their transcript: Withdrew with disciplinary action pending

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS AND THE STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT (SCOC)

1. DEFINITIONS AND TYPES

Student Organizations are organizations that are operated by students at the College and are formally recognized by the College or its designee. Membership in student organizations consists of enrolled students and a faculty or staff advisor.

2. STANDARD OF CONDUCT

Student Organizations are expected to adhere to the same standards of conduct applicable to individual students. Specific violations of this standard include, but are not limited to:

- A. Violating, or permitting its members or their guest to violate, or failing to prevent, where such prevention was possible the violation of this Code of Conduct or any applicable local, state, or federal law. This includes "hazing" as specified in #13 of the Student Code of Conduct (SCOC).
- B. Committing any act in violation of any policy, procedure or agreement, including the College's Residence License Agreement, Campus Computing Services Policies, Student Code of Conduct, other College Policies/Procedures, or another agreement between a student organization and a College official and department, as well as rules promulgated by the appropriate College official and any other rules made applicable to student organizations.
- C. No student organization or Student Activity Fee money may be used for the purchase of alcohol or alcohol related goods or services.

Conversely, when an organization has been found responsible for a Code offense, those administering the Judicial Hearing Process may impose sanctions on some or all members of that organization depending upon the degree of general participation in the offense. Rescission of recognition of the organization may result as all or part of a judicial action.

If the Judicial Appeals Officer determines there is validity to the appeal, the case may be reviewed. The Judicial Appeals Officer will only review valid appeals of outcomes of disciplinary hearings conducted by the Dean of Students/designee. The appeal will be reviewed promptly. If the appeal is not valid, the sanction(s) will be implemented.
4. If the student's pending appeal is accepted by the Judicial Appeals Officer, the Officer may temporarily suspend any penalty imposed until the appeal process is completed. This may be done only after consultation with the Dean of Students/designee, or the Vice President of Student Affairs/designee.
5. The appeal and the documentation shall be reviewed. The Judicial Appeals Officer may invite the student who is appealing, the Dean of Students, or others to provide more details for clarification, if necessary.

NEW YORK STATE SMOKING POLICY

The amended New York State Clean Indoor Air Act, which took effect on July 24, 2003, requires every employer in the State to provide smoke-free work areas for all employees in the workplace, including prohibition on smoking in all public buildings.

FARMINGDALE STATE COLLEGE POLICY

Maintaining a healthy environment for the benefit of all students, faculty, staff and visitors is a major priority for the college. Therefore, the college is taking steps to move to a “Tobacco-Free Campus.” In the spirit of acknowledging the difficulty of attaining a tobacco-free campus, we have adopted the motto: “Help Farmingdale State Become a Tobacco-Free Campus.” The support of the entire campus community is required and requested in order to ultimately attain this goal, as described below.

1. Smoking and the use of other tobacco products, including electronic cigarettes, is prohibited inside all buildings, within 25 feet of the perimeter of all buildings, along pedestrian pathways and at outdoor events.
2. Signs will be placed at appropriate locations around campus.
3. Programs will be provided to support smokers and users of other tobacco products in their effort to quit. Activities will include smoking-cessation sessions, distribution of literature, establishing informational web pages, and other means to encourage individuals to stop smoking and using other tobacco products.
4. Enforcement will be through cooperation of community members, education, and polite requests of those in violation to honor the policy. All members of the campus community are encouraged to help by reminding smokers when they violate the rules, by encouraging our colleagues who smoke to seek help to stop smoking, and by supporting them as they seek to stop.

Adopted 11/17/2011; edited 5/2/2012; amended 4/4/2013
