

IGNITE Guidelines for Poster Presentations

Student poster presenters will spend one-hour-long session standing next to their poster. They will speak about their research project, applied-learning experience, or civically engaged project to faculty, staff, and students and entertain questions from those who pass by. They will have a designated session and location on the floor for their poster presentation. Posters MUST fit on the 36" x 42" boards.

Preparing Posters

- Most people create their work using Microsoft PowerPoint (a poster template can be provided for you).
- Prepare a poster that is informative and graphically appealing.
- Poster should include presenter name, co-authors, academic program, home university, faculty advisor(s), funding sources (if applicable), and project title.
- Poster should clearly and concisely detail the project's: topic, scope, methodology, results (evidence, source material) and conclusions (thesis, interpretations).
- You are encouraged to work drafts of the poster through your faculty advisor.

Preparing Your Presentation

- Prepare a few-minute summary of your work for people who ask what your project is about.
- Practice your presentation so that it is concise, clear, evidenced, and effectively delivered.
- Seek editorial assistance and a practice audience from peers and/or faculty advisor(s).

FARMINGDALE STATE COLLEGE

The logo for the Ignite Symposium at Farmingdale State College. The word "IGNITE" is rendered in a large, bold, green font where each letter is filled with a different technical or scientific icon: 'I' is a vertical bar chart, 'G' is a gear, 'N' is a circuit board, 'I' is a DNA double helix, 'T' is a vertical bar chart, and 'E' is a circuit board. Below "IGNITE" is the word "SYMPOSIUM" in a smaller, green, sans-serif font.

SYMPOSIUM

- On the provided display board, you can set up a printed poster of up to 36” x 42”.
- Present yourself well: dress professionally, wear your name tag, turn off cell phone or personal computer (or turn off volume).
- Consider bringing a contact info sheet/card to distribute to people interested in your work, including your name, home university, academic program, email and/or phone number, title of your poster and/or abstract of your project.
- Be prepared to learn: this is an opportunity to confidently share your hard work and humbly look forward to respectful questions and constructive feedback.
- Good news: being nervous does not hurt your credibility or authority. Have fun and enjoy!
