Dislocated Worker Verification Worksheet 2023-2024

Federal Student Aid Programs

You indicated on the 2023-2024 Free Application for Student Aid (FAFSA) that you, your spouse, or a parent is a dislocated worker*. Information provided on this form, as well as additional supporting documentation is needed to determine whether the dislocated worker status applies. You and your spouse or a parent, if dependent, whose information was reported on the FAFSA (if applicable) must complete and sign this worksheet, attach any required documents, and submit the form and other required documents to the Office of Financial Aid. We may ask for additional information. If you have any questions about verification, contact us at (934) 420-2578 as soon as possible so that your financial aid will not be delayed.

*A person who quits a job, is fired for unsatisfactory performance, is laid off due to seasonal employment, or was previously laid off but is now employed part-time or as a temporary employee, or is in an internship is NOT considered a dislocated worker. Those who qualify as a dislocated worker have generally been laid off or terminated due to the effects of the economy, company downsizing, substantial layoffs, plant closure, a merger or employer going out of business.
